

Project number 2 is about potatoes and the difference in between. I will be showing a video in my home page where you can learn about how does Peru how their potatoes. And the variety of the colors and the size. Also, I have an about bottom where I can click and learn more about history of Peru and the potatoes. I wanted to provide text on about folder since I already had a video on home. The bottom of ART is more related to the different ways how these different potatoes becomes an art we can eat and we incorporated in the Peruvian dishes, there will be a link where it provides more pictures of our dishes, as well you will see an slide show about some of our dishes to admire. The contact section you can see an image and a small paragraph with some information of the museum Peruvians and location of where they can find them, with a hyperlink contact us where you can find all information you need.