

Project 1 Proposal - Michaela Acton

The art exhibition will showcase the variety of artists, illustrators, and graphic designers crafting contemporary book covers. The cover art featured will center mixed media practices, unique visual voices, and the collaboration in cover creation. Hosted by the NoMuNoMu Gallery in Baltimore, the exhibit will showcase the works of Arsh Raziuddin, Kishan Rajani, Zoe Norvell, Chris Bentham, Jonathan Pelham, Pablo Delcan, Juliana Lee, Math Monahan, Grace Han, Luisa Dias, and Donna Cheng. Cover art merges practices of illustration, graphic design, typography, and curation. The website will showcase bold typography to highlight the names of the cover artists featured and play with inventive layouts to best showcase the collection. Scrolling through will move through sections dedicated to each artist's work and the breadth of topics covered by the books they've worked on.
