I want to explore purpose and religion in this project. The audience is introspective people who are curious about why we are here. I think it would be interesting to have different overviews to different religions and how they can change your perspective. I will find images and I need make a logo too.