A Maryland man, with a criminal history, has been identified as the gunman, killed in a shoot-out at a Brooklyn Park Bingo Hall, the shooting also injured a pair of County Police Officers.

Harvey Dean, 53, of Sunrise Beach was shot multiple times and pronounced dead at the scene shortly after the incident yesterday afternoon. Ann Arundel county police spokesmen Justin Mulcahey said yesterday.

Just after four in the afternoon, a female acquaintance of Deans' reported to Bingo-world Security that she was concerned about Dean's behavior, Mulcahey said.

Security guard's found Dean un-cooperative, and called the Police Department. Soon after the 2 Officers arrived, shooting erupted in a smoking lounge off of the main hall, Mulcahey said. The sound of gunfire leads the officers to the lounge.

Officer David Nelson was shot in the arm and hip and released last night from a local hospital. Officer Jack Essinger was hit in the abdomens but his bullet-proof vest deflected the shot. He remained hospitalized for observation.

A toxicology report to determine if Dean had any drugs, or alcohol, in his system could take up to 6 wks. An autopsy was scheduled for Too men armed with a sawed off shot guns burst in to a fast food restaurants, took purses from three woman, emptied the cash register, and fled. Police said. Two suspects were arrested minutes later, after a police chase and after allegedly trying to run down the Arresting Officer.

The incident began shortly before 10:00 p.m. last night at the Wendy Restaurant, 3,003 East Joppa Road. Minutes after the holed up Officer Alfred Poole, a Baltimore county police technicians driving an unmarked police jeep, spotted a car heading North on Lock Raven Blvd. Matching a radioed discretion of the get away car, investigators said.

Pool followed, police said, and stopped his Jeep when the thieves stopped at the entrance ramp of Interstate 695; then fired several shots when the car backed up towards him.

"That when I knew they were the ones who had robbed the restaurant" Pool said. "If they didn't have something to worry about, they wouldn't have tried to run me over."

The suspects were arrested after a chase. They were identified as Tomas B. Peeler, 19, of Baltimore, and John Irving Little, 29 of Catonsville. They were charged with four counts of armed robbery, as well as a deadly weapon, assault while trying to avoid arrest. They were held in lieu of $500,000 bond a piece, police said.
