

Who's your audience?

The audience that is targeted are younger people who are looking to be healthy without having to feel overwhelmed by the oversaturated health market- to make healthy fun, easy, and enjoyable

What kind of work are you showcasing?

The work I will be showcasing will be images of the product- which is kombucha

What is your color scheme?

The color scheme is fun and vibrant

What appropriate typefaces should you use?

The typefaces will be fun and playful

Plan out how many works you will have on your site before you build it.

I will have multiple images of the same product as well as branding to the FunBuCha product

When presenting your project during the exam day, think about it as if you were going in for a job interview.

What do you want to say about your self and your work?

I would say that I enjoy making things colorful and eccentric similar to how I am as a person. My goal is to bring good design to those in need in order to help them achieve their humanitarian goals.

What questions should you be prepared to answer?

Tell me about yourself, What are your strengths and weaknesses, Why are you interested in this job?