

My audience will be my classmates. The best way to present my topic of interest will be through a slide show with talking points on a website. My design will relate to my subject matter, as it will complement what I am working on. For now, I do not think I need to make a logo but will in the future if needed. I will find images online that I can use for this project and illustrate them if needed.